Biographical Note

Date	Event
1894-1925	Born, the son of Joseph McConnell of Holyhead, North Wales. Educated in Europe and finished his engineering degree at the University of Washington.
1925	Married Eleanor Griffin. Resided on North Crescent Heights Boulevard in Los Angeles, CA. Worked as a private mapmaker who specialized in economic surveys. Established McConnell's Economic Surveys.
1935	Death of wife, Eleanor.
1950	Conducted survey for a South Los Angeles shopping center to serve the Watts neighborhood. The project cost was $1.5 million.
1979	Died in Orange County, CA.

Scope and Content Note

McConnell's Economic Survey Collection spans the years 1929-1970. It consists primarily of maps and economic surveys of Los Angeles and southern California.

Arrangement of the Collection

There are 15 series organized by geographic location. The folders are numbered in accordance with a list created by the previous owner. Some projects are absent from the collection (as they were sold individually by the previous owner) but are indicated in McConnell's project list, which can be found in Series XV.
