Collection Summary

Title: Muriel H. Parry map collection

Inclusive Dates: 1538-1990

Call No.: G3201.A5 coll .P3 Parry

Creator: Parry, Muriel H.

Extent: approximately 871 items

Extent: 871 folders

Language: Collection material in English, Latin, German, French, Italian, Portuguese and Japanese

Location: Geography and Map Division, Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.

LC Catalog record: <https://lccn.loc.gov/2021588017>

Summary: The collection consists of some 871 maps that are largely pictorial. Muriel H. Parry, a librarian for the U.S. State Department, compiled the maps and several were deaccessioned from the State Department's library. Formats in the collection include single map and maps in books, magazines, calendars, and advertisements. In addition, there are maps on napkins, gift cards, cloth, etc. Included are maps by Ernest Clegg, Richard Edes Harrison, Hal Shelton, Daniel K. Wallingford, MacDonald Gill, Chase Ernest Dudley, among others. Parry created a map that is part of the collection.

Provenance

Muriel H. Perry bequeathed the collection to the Geography and Map Division in 2004.

Processing History

The collection was processed and arranged by the Geography and Map Division from 2004-2011, including significant contributions by Craig Andersen.

Copyright Status

Materials from the Muriel H. Parry map collection are governed by the Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, U.S.C.) and other applicable international copyright laws.

Access and Restrictions

The Muriel H. Parry map collection collection is open to research. Researchers are advised to contact the Geography and Map Reading Room prior to visiting. Many collections are stored off-site and advance notice is needed to retrieve these items for research use.

Preferred Citation

Researchers wishing to cite this collection should include the following information: Container number, Muriel H. Parry map collection collection, Geography and Map Division, Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.

Biographical Note

Muriel H. Parry was born 1922 in New York City and died in 2004. She began her career as a map librarian with the American Geographical Society from 1942 to 1944. She accepted a position as a map librarian with the University of Illinois in 1944 (see folder 812). Three years later, she was hired as a map librarian for the U.S. State Department, where she worked until 1975.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of some 871 maps, which are largely pictorial, that depict most parts of the world.

Arrangement

The items follow Parry's arrangement. Series were added by the Geography and Map Division to assist in the researcher. Parry filed some maps out of order, and in such cases, this is noted.

The Muriel H. Parry map collection collection is organized in 14 series.
