Summary: Poetry Office, Library of Congress, an office established to provide assistance to the Consultants in Poetry to the Library of Congress and, later, the Poet Laureate Consultants in Poetry, as well as oversight of various poetry and literature programs. Correspondence, memoranda, notes, literary manuscripts, minutes, reports, financial records, photographs, printed matter, and exhibits relating to the operation of the Poetry Office, the work of the Consultants in Poetry and, later, the Poet Laureate Consultants in Poetry, and various literary programs sponsored by or held at the Library of Congress.

Acquisition Information

The records of the Poetry Office were transferred to the Library of Congress Archives in several installments from the Poetry Office, the Manuscript Division, the Assistant Librarian for Research Services, and the Central Services Division from 1970 to 1990.

Processing History

The records of the Poetry Office were arranged and described in 1990, most likely by historical specialist John D. Knowlton. Photographs were moved to the Photographs and Objects Series of the Library of Congress Archives and are identified by item numbers 1014-1289. The finding aid was encoded and revised by Melinda K. Friend with the assistance of Shandra Morehouse in 2021.

Additional Description

A finding aid for the Library of Congress Archives is available at <https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mss/eadlca.lc017001>.

A history of the Consultanship in Poetry was published in Poetry's Catbird Seat: The Consultanship in Poetry in the English Language at the Library of Congress, 1937-1987 (Washington: Library of Congress, 1988) by William McGuire.

"Poetry Behind the Scenes at the Library of Congress," written by Patricia Gray and published in the Beltway Poetry Quarterly 15:4 (2014), discusses the women who worked in the Poetry Office and is available at <https://www.beltwaypoetry.com/poetry-behind-the-scenes/>.

Scope and Content Note

The records of the Poetry Office Series, Library of Congress Archives, span the years 1915-1990, with the bulk of the material dating from 1947 to 1985. The collection documents the establishment of the position Consultant in Poetry to the Library of Congress (later Poet Laureate Consultant in Poetry), the work carried out by the incumbents of that position, the operations of the Poetry Office, and the various poetry and literature programs sponsored by or held at the Library of Congress including those sponsored through the Gertrude Clarke Whittall Poetry and Literature Fund. It should be noted that the titles Consultant in Poetry in the English Language at the Library of Congress, Consultant in Poetry in English, Consultant in Poetry, Chair of Poetry, and later Poet Laureate Consultant in Poetry, all refer to the same position. The collection is organized into eight series: Series A: General Office Files, 1915-1965; Series B: General Office Files, 1966-1970; Series C: General Office Files, 1971-1975; Series D: General Office Files, 1976-1980; Series E: General Office Files, 1981-1985; Series F: General Office Files, 1986-1990; Series G: Printing, 1946-1986; and Series H: Reference, 1950-1980.
