Summary: Order Division, Library of Congress, was a unit responsible for accessions to the Library's collections from all sources, including acquisitions by purchase, exchange, gift, and copyright deposit. Correspondence, memoranda, acquisition records, collection catalogs, lists, reports, photographs, and printed matter, in both microfilm and physical formats, documenting the unit's acquisition and accessioning operations.

Acquisition Information

The records of the Order Division were transferred to the Library of Congress Archives in the Manuscript Division in several installments: one in 1944, with selected materials reproduced on microfilm in 1991 by the Library's Photoduplication Services; one in 1946 from the Acquisitions Department; and two from the Office of Systems Services in 1997 and 2010.

Processing History

A portion of the records of the Order Division were rehoused and described in 2011 by Cheryl Fox. The bulk of the collection was arranged, rehoused, and a finding aid was encoded in 2022-2023 by Elissa Jerome, Matt Caruso, Rochelle Safo, Zoe Costanza, Samantha Kramer, Jake Bozza, and Chanté Flowers.

Additional Description

A finding aid for the Library of Congress Archives is available at <https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mss/eadlca.lc017001>.

Copyright Status

The status of copyright in the records of the Order Division is governed by the Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, U.S.C.).

Administrative History

Date	Event
1898	Librarian of Congress John Russell Young established Order Department
1900	Librarian of Congress Herbert Putnam established Order Division, William Parker Cutter appointed chief; functions included accessioning Library materials acquired by purchase, gift, exchange, and copyright deposit
1924	Order Division renamed Accessions Division to reflect greater proportion of materials acquired through exchange, gift, and copyright deposit than by purchase; Martin Arnold Roberts appointed chief
1940	Librarian of Congress Archibald MacLeish established Processing Department to coordinate acquisitions and cataloging functions, moved Accessions Division within; Accessions Division renamed Order Division
1943	General Order 1188 created Acquisitions Department, with Order Division functions covering acquisition by exchange, gift, transfer, and deposit removed to establish Exchange and Gift Division

Scope and Content Note

The records of the Order Division of the Library of Congress span the years 1898-1991, with the bulk of the material dating from 1900 to 1943. The records document the operations of the Order Division, which was responsible for accessioning Library materials acquired by purchase, gift, exchange, and copyright deposit. The records are primarily in English, with Indo-European languages. The collection is arranged in five series: Control File, Correspondence Files, Acquisition Records, Subject Files, and Special Collections.

The collection's series are listed and briefly described below. A fuller description of each series and a list of its contents can be accessed in the series descriptions within the container list.

The Control File is available on microfilm and contains records relating to the functions of the Order Division.

The Correspondence Files constitute the bulk of the collection and primarily contain correspondence with vendors relating to materials acquired for the Library's collections as well as memoranda, invoices, orders, and subject files.

The Acquisition Records include bound volumes of various types of orders for Library materials.

The Subject Files series contains files of the Order Division and the Accessions Division administration.

The Special Collections series contains documentation on the acquisition or proposed acquisition of rare material and special collections materials for the Library of Congress.

Arrangement of the Collection

This collection is arranged in five series:

- Control File, 1901-1930
- Correspondence Files, 1898-1943
- Acquisition Records, 1899-1978
- Subject Files, 1903-1941
- Special Collections, 1920-1991

Description of Series

Container	Series
REEL 1-68	Control File, 1901-1930 Available only on microfilm. Shelf no. 20,283 The Control File is available on microfilm and contains records relating to the functions of the Order Division. Records from successor Library units, such as the Accessions Division, may also be included. The original records were reformatted on microfilm in 1991 by the Library's Photoduplication Service. With the exception of one record carton of correspondence, the bulk of the records in this series were destroyed after microfilming. Copies of the physical records may be interfiled with fiscal year documentation throughout the collection. The Control File primarily consists of transmittal letters to vendors that record information about the source, such as bookseller name and address, date, price of materials, assigned order numbers, and a description of items offered, approved, cancelled, purchased, and received. Material types include microfilm. Arranged as received, chronologically and numerically by control number.
BOX 1-1468	Correspondence Files, 1898-1943 The Correspondence Files constitute the bulk of the collection and primarily contain correspondence with vendors relating to materials acquired for the Library's collections as well as memoranda, invoices, orders, and subject files. It also includes correspondence and memoranda between Library offices as well as orders and subject files. Records from predecessor and successor Library units, such as the Accessions Division, also are included. Material types include correspondence, memoranda, acquisition records such as bills and invoices, subject files, lists, photographs, photostats, printed matter such as catalogs and clippings, and general records such as balances, estimates, and annual and monthly reports. Arranged in two subseries and as received therein.
BOX 1-1457	General Correspondence, 1899-1943 The General Correspondence is the bulk of this series. It mainly includes correspondence between the Order Division and vendors, book dealers, publishers, libraries, international institutions, and other sources regarding materials offered, approved, cancelled, purchased, and received. Other materials include files designated as memoranda, orders, subject files, and approval sheets. The memoranda consists of correspondence internal to the Library of Congress, particularly between specific divisions and the Order Division regarding acquisitions. The orders are invoices for material purchased by the Library through the Order Division. The subject files include letters to the Library regarding offered materials organized by subject. The approval sheets are reports on materials offered to the Library designated as accepted, postponed, or rejected. Material types include correspondence, memoranda, orders, subject files, and approval sheets. Arranged chronologically by fiscal year (July through June the following year) and therein alphabetically by name of correspondent.
BOX 1457-1468	Interdivisional Correspondence and Memoranda, 1898-1915 This subseries contains correspondence and memoranda between Library offices. These materials were previously separated from the rest of the correspondence files and thus complement the rest of the series. Material types include internal correspondence, memoranda, order forms, annual reports, and some external correspondence. Arranged alphabetically by division or topic and therein chronologically.

BOX 1469-1516

Acquisition Records, 1899-1978

The Acquisition Records include bound volumes of various types of orders for Library materials. These include letterpress volumes of orders, bound copies of purchase orders, and bound book orders with domestic and foreign dealers and publishing houses. The series also includes collection catalogs that are lists of various collections to be purchased or exchanged with other libraries or organizations. Also included are registers of invoices volumes which include ledgers of invoices, with their amounts owed and dates, listed alphabetically by dealer or publisher.

Material types include letterpress copybooks, vouchers, purchase orders, collection catalogs, invoices, and ledgers. Many of the older volumes are fragile.

Arranged by type of material and then chronologically.

BOX 1517-1541

Subject Files, 1903-1941

The Subject Files series contains files of the administration of the Order Division and the Accessions Division. This set of records may have been separated and retired from active files in 1943 when the Acquisitions Department was established and the Order Division was moved within. The files consist of general records documenting the functions of the unit.

Material types include correspondence, interdivisional memoranda, acquisition records, estimates, monthly and annual reports, personnel files, lists, and other documentation related to the operational activities of the division.

Organized alphabetically by subject and then chronologically.

BOX 1542-1548

Special Collections, 1920-1991

The Special Collections series contains documentation on the acquisition or proposed acquisition of rare material and special collections materials for the Library of Congress. It includes documentation from the Order Division and the Acquisition Department. Particularly notable is the documentation on the Sigmund Freud Archives Collection and the India Wheat Loan Program.

Material types include correspondence, memoranda, telegrams, dealer catalogs, appraisals, vouchers, purchase orders, procurement reports, photographs, and travel reports.

Arranged alphabetically by name of person, organization, or project.
