Scope and Content Note

The papers of William Morgan Shuster (1877-1960) span the years 1900-1964, with the bulk of the items concentrated in the years 1911-1939. Shuster's diplomatic career is chronicled in his diary, correspondence, certificates, and scrapbooks containing newspaper clippings, correspondence, documents, and photographs. The scrapbooks are arranged in the order created by Shuster, with the exception of Volume 1 which was not received with the papers. They are available only on microfilm, although a few select items from the original volumes have been preserved and retained in a separate grouping of material removed from the scrapbooks after filming.

The diary and many of the scrapbooks concern Shuster's service as the treasurer-general and financial advisor for Persia from 1911 to 1912 and his subsequent removal from that position. Some of the scrapbooks relate to Shuster's earlier career in the Cuban customs service, 1899-1901, and in the Philippine Islands as the insular collector of customs at Manila and later as a member of the Philippine Commission, 1901-1909. The professional correspondence includes letters from such noted persons as William H. Taft and Woodrow Wilson. Family correspondence was mostly written by Shuster, his wife Pearl Trigg Shuster, and their daughter, Litie, later Contessa Cacciaguerra-Ranghieri.
