Scope and Content Note

The papers of Royal Rodney Ingersoll (1847-1931) and Royal Eason Ingersoll (1883-1976), father and son, span the years 1866 to 1935 with the bulk from 1866 to 1925. The papers are in English and include clippings, correspondence, newspapers, notebooks, pamphlets, publications, speeches, and miscellany consisting of invitations, dance cards, and programs. The collection also includes oversize material.

The papers of Royal Rodney Ingersoll feature personal correspondence and official memoranda, instruction manuals and naval history publications, and speeches written by Ingersoll. A miscellany file includes invitations, programs, and dance cards, as well as his 1910 application and acceptance in the Grand Army of the Republic. The collection reflects Ingersoll's experience commanding the Maryland and his expertise in ballistics and ordnance. Oversize and pamphlet materials include programs and newspapers covering the Great White Fleet's reception in Australia and New Zealand.

The papers of Royal Rodney Ingersoll's son, Royal E. Ingersoll, consist primarily of notebooks from his years at the United States Naval Academy. These contain written examinations and exercises as well as two diaries kept during his Younger Year and First Class cruises. Royal E. Ingersoll's papers also include clippings from newspapers and magazines.

Oversize material in the collection consists of five newspapers from Australia and New Zealand and a 1907 certificate for a dinner in honor of Admiral Robley D. Evans.

Arrangement of the Papers

The collection is organized by name of creator and thereunder alphabetically by type of material.
