Provenance

The records of the World Calendar Association were given to the Library of Congress by Elisabeth Achelis, former president of the organization, in 1956. The papers of Wilhem Henry Souder, scientist, were transferred from the United States National Bureau of Standards in 1954 and subsequently added to this collection. Additional papers from the office of the president of the organization, now called the International World Calendar Association, were given to the Library in 2001.

Processing History

The records of the World Calendar Association were arranged and described in 1957 and revised in 1997. An addition was processed in 2008. The finding aid was revised in 2011.

Additional Guides

A note about the collection appeared in the Library of Congress Quarterly Journal of Current Acquisitions, 14, no. 3 (May 1957).

Copyright Status

Copyright in the unpublished writings of the World Calendar Association is reserved. Consult a reference librarian in the Manuscript Division for further information.
