Scope and Content Note

The papers of Harvey Washington Wiley (1844-1930) span the years 1854-1954, with the bulk of the material concentrated in the period 1860-1930. Included is correspondence, diaries, legal records, clippings, memoranda, printed matter, articles, speeches, lectures, essays, maps, blueprints, graphs, tables, memorabilia, and photographs. The papers relate to three major periods: Wiley's early years as student and teacher; his service as chief of the Bureau of Chemistry of the Department of Agriculture, 1883-1912, during which he led the movement that culminated in passage of the Food and Drugs Act of 1906; and his retirement years, during which he lectured on the Chautauqua circuit and directed the Good Housekeeping Institute Bureau of Food, Sanitation, and Health. The collection is organized in twelve series: Letterpress Volumes; General Correspondence and Other Papers; Farm and Dairy Correspondence and Other Papers; Good Housekeeping Correspondence and Other Papers; Engagements Correspondence and Other Papers; Articles, Addresses, and Writings; Subject File; Biographical Material; Miscellany; Printed Matter; Addition; and Oversize.
