Acquisition Information

The papers of Leland Harrison were given to the Library of Congress by his wife, Anne Harrison, in 1952.

Processing History

The papers of Leland Harrison were arranged and described by Manuscript Division staff in 1952. At that time, brackets were used in the finding aid to indicate titles or parts of titles devised by the archivist. The finding aid was revised in 2013. Katherine Duvall further revised and converted the finding aid to EAD in 2022. Physical arrangement was not disturbed, despite some files being out of order, and is reflected in the container list.

Copyright Status

Copyright in the unpublished writings of Leland Harrison in these papers and in other collections of papers in the custody of the Library of Congress has been dedicated to the public.

Transfers

Some photographs have been transferred to the Prints and Photographs Division where they are identified as part of the Leland Harrison Papers. Patrons are encouraged to contact the Prints and Photographs Division in advance of a research visit.

Access and Restrictions

The papers of Leland Harrison are open to research. Many collections are stored off-site and advance notice is needed to retrieve these items for research use. Researchers are advised to contact the Manuscript Reading Room prior to visiting.

Preferred Citation

Researchers wishing to cite this collection should include the following information: Container number, Leland Harrison Papers, Manuscript Division, Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.

Scope and Content Note

The papers of Leland Harrison (1881-1953) span the years 1915-1947, with the bulk of the material dating from 1918 to 1921. The collection primarily documents Harrison's participation as a member of the American Commission to Negotiate Peace at the Paris Peace Conference (1919-1920) after World War I. There is also significant correspondence from his time as United States assistant secretary of state (1922-1927) and as a diplomat to Sweden, Uruguay, Romania, and Switzerland. The collection is organized into four series: General Correspondence, Memoranda, Paris Peace Conference, and Miscellany.

Correspondents include Dean Acheson, Will Clayton, Joseph C. Grew, Warren G. Harding, Manley O. Hudson, Cordell Hull, Alexander Comstock Kirk, Robert Lansing, Henry Cabot Lodge, Frank Ross McCoy, George S. Messersmith, Robert D. Murphy, William Phillips, Frank L. Polk, Eliot Wadsworth, Sumner Welles, and John G. Winant.

The collection's series are listed and briefly described below. A fuller description of each series and a list of its contents can be accessed in the series descriptions within the container list.

The General Correspondence series contains Harrison's letters sent and received from 1915 to 1947.

The Memoranda series contains copies of memoranda from 1924 to 1926 and 1942 to 1947.

The Paris Peace Conference series contains primarily printed and mimeographed documentation from the conference, minutes of commissioners and technical advisors, and Harrison's notes and personal miscellaneous files. Material dates from 1918 to 1921.

The Miscellany series contains correspondence, printed matter, reports, maps, clippings, photographs, diaries, indexes, and personal memorabilia dating from 1906 to 1947.

Arrangement of the Papers

This collection is arranged in four series:

- General Correspondence, 1915-1947
- Memoranda, 1924-1947
- Paris Peace Conference, 1918-1921
- Miscellany, 1906-1947
