Titles

J. Fischer & Brother music publishers collection, 1950-1970

Provenance

Gift; Joseph A. Fischer; 1970

Custodial History

In 1970, two cartons containing a collection of autograph manuscripts of contemporary composers were given to the Library of Congress by Joseph A. Fischer, president of the J. Fischer & Bro. music publishers. This gift was the largest shipment of materials to the Library from the J. Fischer organization, which had a tradition dating back to the early 1950s of donating music manuscripts and related materials to the Library.

Accruals

No further accruals are expected.

Processing History

The J. Fischer & Bro. Music Publishers Collection was processed by William Nelson, music technician, and William Parsons and Robert Saladini, music specialists, in August 1994. Nancy Seeger coded the finding aid for EAD format in 2011.

Copyright Status

Materials from the J. Fischer & Bro. Music Publishers Collection are governed by the Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, U.S.C.) and other applicable international copyright laws.

Access and Restrictions

The J. Fischer & Bro. Music Publishers Collection is open to research. Researchers are advised to contact the Music Division prior to visiting in order to determine whether the desired materials will be available at that time.

Certain restrictions to use or copying of materials may apply.

Preferred Citation

Researchers wishing to cite this collection should include the following information: [item, date, container number], J. Fischer & Bro. Music Publishers Collection, Music Division, Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.

Organizational Note

The American publishing firm J. Fischer & Bro. was established as J. Fischer & Brother by Joseph and Ignaz Fischer, in Dayton, Ohio, in 1864. It moved to New York in 1875 and was acquired by Belwin-Mills in 1970.

Scope and Content Note

The J. Fischer & Bro. Music Publishers Collection consists of autograph manuscripts of music used for publishing purposes and dating from 1950 to 1970. The majority of the manuscripts are choral works, both sacred and secular, many with piano or organ accompaniment. In addition, original works for organ and piano are included, as well as piano and organ transcriptions. Most of these works were published by Fischer & Bro. music publishers.

Notable composers whose works are represented here are Jean Berger, Joseph Clokey, Paul Creston, Garth Edmundson, Robert Graham, Charles Haubiel, Camil Van Hulse, Philip James, Theron Kirk, Austin Lovelace, George Frederick McKay, Howard D. McKinney, Richard Purvis, Kathryn Hill Rawls, Carlo Rossini, Royal Stanton, William Grant Still, Homer Whitford, David H. Williams, Pietro Yon, and Gordon Young.

The collection is arranged in alphabetical order by composer or arranger. The container list includes name of composer or arranger, title, genre, and format.
