Biographical Note

George H. Moss was born on March 2, 1923, in New York City. He was a graduate of the Horace Mann School in New York and attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. In 1942, he enlisted in the U.S. Army and he was honorably discharged in 1946. He then worked at the New York Stock Exchange. After retiring in 1971, Moss pursued his interest in preserving the history of Monmouth County, New Jersey. For his work, he received the Award of Recognition from the New Jersey Historical Commission in 1983, the Jane G. Clayton Award from Monmouth County in 1997, and the Richard J. Hughes Award from the New Jersey Historical Commission in 1998. In 1999, Moss was appointed the official Monmouth County Historian and Rumson Borough Historian. In addition to his formal activities as a historian, Moss also developed a personal collection of materials related to the history of Monmouth County, as well as 5,000 glass plate negatives of New York and Long Branch, New Jersey. He authored numerous books and articles and had interests in geneology, photography, and early American Theater. Moss died on February 25, 2009.

Scope and Content Note

The George H. Moss Collection of Sheet Music primarily contains printed piano-vocal scores that span from 1885 to 1935, with the bulk of the materials dating between 1900 and 1925. Many of the titles are for American popular songs produced in Tin Pan Alley in New York City, which was the center for commercial production of American popular song during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Some songwriters and music publishers represented in the collection include Irving Berlin, George M. Cohan, Fred Fisher, George Gershwin, Charles K. Harris, Victor Herbert, Louis A. Hirsch, Frank Loesser, George William Mayer, Cole Porter, John Stromberg, and Egbert van Alstyne. It also contains a significant number of songs for musical theater, including the work of Gus Edwards, Sheldon Harnick, Jerome Kern, Richard Rodgers, Sigmund Romberg, Arthur Sullivan, Harry Tierney, and Gus Williams.

Please note that some words typically used in song titles of this era do not match the language preferred by members of the communities to which they refer.

Organization of the George H. Moss Collection of Sheet Music
