Scope and Content Note

These materials include miscellaneous documentation of work by 362 sculptors, the bulk of whom were active in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. The material covers a broad range of forms and styles including funerary and civic monuments, statues, figurines, animal groups, medals, and bas-reliefs. Some of the works illustrated are by lesser known sculptors through images copyrighted by the National Sculpture Society and by the Art Academy of Cincinnati. There are also photographs taken by H.S. Crocker & Co. and copyrighted by the Panama-Pacific Exposition Co. depicting installation of sculpture for the Exposition. Some well-represented sculptors in this collection include: Aitken, Barthé, Bartlett, Borglum, Calder, Dallin, Donoghue, Eberle, Flanagan, Fraser, French, Frishmuth, Grafly, Hartley, Hoffman, Jennewein, MacMonnies, MacNeil, Manship, Mayer, Mears, Proctor, Putnam, Ream, Ruckstuhl, Saint-Gaudens, Schweizer, Scudder, Troubetzkoy, Weinman, and Winans.

Arrangement

Works by American sculptors is organized alphabetically by the sculptor's name and include the following information: sculptor's name; number of images; and name of sitter, if appropriate.
