Scope and Content Note

Collection contains 4 albums of color photographs of county courthouses in 30 states of the U.S. The courthouses represented were constructed primarily in the 19th and 20th century, with a particular emphasis on the Midwest region. Many different architectural styles are represented, such as Federal, Neoclassical, Romanesque Revival, and Art Deco.

The states included are Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, and Wyoming. Most photographs show the front exterior of each courthouse from a short distance, while some have a closer view of details such as statues, sculptures, columns, or monuments on the buildings or grounds.

Arrangement

Photographs are grouped together in the albums by state. They are in the original order based on the creator's layout, which is not alphabetical. Courthouses are identified by county using information provided in the original captions. They are listed in the format of "county, city;" Text written in parentheses is from the original captions. Information provided in brackets was added by Library staff.
